connections and community engagement.

THE ARAB FILM FESTIVAL

Your generous support allows us to bring extraordinary and thought-provoking films by filmmakers from the Arab diaspora to our local and national audiences.

Since its inception in 2005, the annual Arab Film Festival (AFF) has grown to become one of the Arab American National Museum's (AANM) most prized and popular events. Each year, thousands of viewers from across the nation gather to enjoy critically acclaimed and award-winning films by both Arab and Arab American artists. Many of these films are unlikely to reach commercial theaters, and AFF proudly provides a platform for creators of Arab descent to showcase their work, share their stories and be celebrated. AFF amplifies the voices and stories of underrepresented communities while building bridges between diverse groups through film, art and dialogue.
