AANM Benefit Dinner

JOIN US FOR THE AANM BENEFIT ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2025 AT THE HENRY HOTEL!

For 20 years, the Arab American National Museum (AANM) has been a home for our stories, our artifacts and our shared memories. This year's Benefit Dinner, themed "Al Bayt Baytak – This Home is Your Home," will honor the Museum's 20th anniversary and the resilient community that has helped shape it.

The Museum's Benefit Dinner unites leading business owners, professionals and Museum supporters from across the nation to raise much needed funds for AANM's educational and cultural programs. At a time when Arab American identity is scrutinized, the Museum is the only one of its kind in the United States that tells the story of Arab immigrants and their descendants – immortalizing our heritage, on our terms.

CLASSROOM VISITS ▼

Each year, AANM presents a variety of educational programs both online and in-person, reaching classrooms across the nation. These year-round programs include virtual live and guided tours, interactive activities for students, video and audio resources for the classroom, and more. These impactful experiences allow students to explore Arab American history and culture and learn about the diversity of our nation.

“ It was extremely educational and well designed. This tour, and the way it was delivered, did a great job presenting the Arab American culture. On a grander scale, it also brings into focus how all cultures have similarities and are connected to each other. Very well done. ”
- Detroit Public Schools teacher

ENGAGING EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS ▲

The Museum presents various youth programs each year, such as the AANM Writing Fellowship, the Al-Hadiqa Apprenticeship and Shababeek Culture Camp. These programs, with support from professional artists, guide middle and high school students in telling their stories through different artistic mediums. From writing and gardening to photography and performing, the Museum's youth programs give students resources and support to explore their creative selves.

TRAVELING EXHIBITIONS ▼

AANM exhibitions illustrate the immigrant experience and counter misconceptions and stereotypes about Arab Americans. Photographer Jim Lommasson's What We Carried: Fragments & Memories from Iraq & Syria is a traveling exhibition that documents the life-changing journeys of Iraqi and Syrian refugees to America and sheds light on the challenges they faced in search of stability. As of 2025, this exhibition has travelled to fifteen locations across the nation and has reached over a million people.

INNOVATIVE ARTISTIC ENDEAVORS ▲

In recent years, AANM has featured diverse and exciting solo exhibitions: كينونة – Existence by Almigdad Aldikhairy and Colonial Colonnade by Doris Bittar. The breadth and variety of these artists reflects our intention to uplift, support and showcase artists of color from the Arab world, while also archiving their work as part of the larger Arab American story.
